Billing Rates a Fraction of Other Consultants'

Project Partners saves engineering costs. It's simple. With billing rates at a fraction of consultants' we have been providing dramatic savings to our clients for over a decade. This, combined with the management efficiencies of on-site operations, the savings are further multiplied.

Lower Billing Rates

Project Partners Billing Rates are a Fraction of Other Consultants' Rates

Example: Consultants typically charge $130 to $140 per hour for Engineering Project Managers. Project Partners' rates are usually under $100 per hour for the same engineer. The quality of our Engineering Staff is evidenced by number of our employees hired as permanent employees by our client.
